

Exela Technologies Secures Term Loan of $145 Million

12/17, 2020

- Retires debt under existing facility and replaces with a new facility
- Substantially achieves liquidity strategic initiative

IRVING, Texas, Dec. 17, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. ("Exela") (NASDAQ: XELA), a location-agnostic global business process automation leader, announced that it has entered into a 5-year, $145 million term loan facility with Angelo Gordon, a global alternative investment firm. The facility provides for an initial funding of approximately $92 million and subject to certain conditions a further funding of approximately $53 million. A portion of the proceeds from the initial funding will be used to retire all debt outstanding under Exela's accounts receivables securitization facility of approximately $83 million. Liquidity, as determined in accordance with the First Lien Credit Agreement, dated as of July 12, 2017, as amended, to which Exela's subsidiaries are party, will be greater than $140 million assuming full funding under the new facility. On that basis, the Company's previously announced strategic initiative to improve liquidity to approximately $150 million will be substantially achieved. The company's filed 8-K includes additional transaction details.
