Exela Technologies Expands PCH Global Deployment For a Large Third-Party Administrator (TPA) Adding Over 18,000 Healthcare Providers for Digital Submission of Claims and Correspondence

jun 01, 2021

IRVING, Texas, June 01, 2021 -- Exela Technologies, Inc. ("Exela" or "the Company") (NASDAQ: XELA), a global business process automation (BPA) leader, today announced expansion of PCH Global platform deployment for over 18,000 providers across the country increasing the total PCH Global registered user headcount to over 35,000 healthcare providers and hospital systems. This effort will accelerate the digital transformation efforts for a major US health insurance company's TPA division and is part of a broader relationship built over 24 years.

Exela has continued to invest in expanding PCH Global capabilities to provide a cloud hosted solution with one of the best edit resolutions for healthcare claims. This expansion of deployment marks another milestone in PCH Global platform's growing value proposition in healthcare to digitally connect members, providers and insurance companies for clean claims, payment transparency and digital appeals.

"This deployment accelerates our customer's digital transformation journey by connecting key constituents of the industry. PCH Global will reduce administrative costs and improve transparency by ensuring claims are paid correctly the first time" said Srini Murali, Exela's President for Americas & APAC.

Exela's strategy is to migrate existing and future healthcare relationships to PCH Global's cloud network in order to offer greater scalability, highest uptime and business continuity protections, as well as improved data analytics built into the platform and accessible via a self-service model. In collaboration with our customer, Exela's team of data scientists leverage intelligent data processing capabilities powered by neural networks, and Exela's Business Process Management teams help healthcare and insurance customers optimize business processes, generate deeper insights, and achieve greater process flexibility and control. Exela's continued investments to add more features, services and support for additional insurance segments, make PCH Global an ideal choice for insurance companies
