

Exela Technologies Announces New XBP Contracts Totaling $18.3 Million

jun 03, 2022

IRVING, Texas, June 03, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. ("Exela") (NASDAQ: XELA, XELAP) today announced new customer wins worth $18.3 million over the next three years. The new business is across two new logos and revenue will begin accruing in the third quarter of 2022.

Exela's Exchange for Bills and Payments ("XBP"), the largest revenue contributor in the ITPS accounting segment, continues to sign new logos. This integrated solution utilizes several of Exela's platforms including payment processing (TMS), collaborative work flow (Beats) and digital mailroom (DMR) delivering a bespoke solution used by Exela's knowledge workers and its newly acquired customers. As the pandemic recovery continues, XBP solutions continue to uncover new use cases and the company sees increased interest from customers.

"These new wins demonstrate the flexibility and potential that XBP offers customers. Additionally, we have a pipeline of new opportunities that we are pursuing that leverage the strength of the XBP platform," noted Lakshmi Narayanan Chandramohan SVP and Business Manager – Exchange for Bills and Payments.

Exela is a leader in Bills and Payment processing with more than thirty years of experience handling complex problems and delivering simplicity. XBP liquidity solutions allow billers, consumers and businesses to communicate and transact. XBP offers a complete solution to its customers and enables improved control, insights and analytics globally.
